

EXHIBIT 4

The project is “Not Applicable” on both accounts as it is a wastewater collection system improvement project and does not involve and new construction or rehabilitation of buildings or structures that would be subject to the state building energy code.